

Training location:

Target group: S!MPATI[®] Beginner and refresher

Information: We use the latest S!MPATI[®] version (4.80) in this training.

Due to the pandemic situation, laptops cannot be provided for hygienic reasons. The laptops must be provided by the customer. For the training the installation of the free demo version 4.80 is necessary. It can be found on <https://www.weiss-technik.com/software>.

Note for participants with older versions: The training will be held using the latest S!MPATI[®] 4.80 version. Participants with older versions can also take part without any problems. We pay attention to a certain downward compatibility to older versions during the training.
